Song: People in Your Neighborhood
(Sesame Street)

Oh, who (hands with palms up in front with tilted head)
Are the people in your neighborhood, (present right arm from left to right)
In your neighborhood, (present right arm from left to right)
Are the people in your neighborhood, (present right arm from left to right)
We're the people that you meet (shake your own hands)
When you're walking down the street;; (walk in place)
We're the peo – ple that you meet (shake your own hands)
Each (arms overhead)
Day (jazz hands).

The Ducklings are the Police in our neighborhood.

Police Officer
Songs by StoryBots

A friendly officer's on the beat
Keepin' watch of the busy city street
(children are smiling and waving)
And the people are safe 'cause the officer is there (one foot forward and arms stretched out to each side) A car breaks down in the middle of town
And the traffic is zipping all around
(both hands on either side of head and shaking the head)
But the driver's okay 'cause the officer is there.
(one foot forward and arms stretched out to each side)

The officer out patrolling
Is the pride of the force,
(walking in place, arms bent and moving back and forth)
In a cruiser that goes rolling
(drive a car)
Or on a bike, or else a horse!
(pull back like pulling back the reins on a horse)
A child gets lost and starts to cry,
But her smile will soon return. Here's why—
(fists to eyes and make crying sounds, like babies crying on wheels on the bus)
The cheerful and helpful officer is there.
(one foot forward and arms stretched out to each side)

Some bad guys try to break the laws,
But they don't get very far because
(wave forefinger as if scolding)
The brave and dutiful officer is there.
(one foot forward and arms stretched out to each side)

On the streets or at the station,
In sunshine or storm,
(two hands raised above the head, as if protecting from rain)
It's a fine and proud vocation

To wear the badge and uniform!
(proudly hold each side of the vest)

The officer has so much to do.
Some day that officer could be you!

(two thumbs point to chest)

The good, dependable officer's always there!

(one foot forward and arms stretched out to each side)

The good, dependable officer's always there!

(one foot forward and arms stretched out to each side)

I'm a Police Officer

(Tune: I'm a Little Teapot)

I'm a police officer
(point to self)

Dressed in blue
(hands go from head to toe)

If you have a problem,
(palms up toward ceiling)

I'll help you.
(point to audience)

Call me on the phone
(thumb by ear and pinky by mouth)

At 9--1--1
(index finger tap in palm of hand)

And I'll be coming
(start to jog in place)

On the run!
(continue to jog in place)

Irk! Stopped the Speeder 2X

(Tune: Pop! Goes the Weasel)

All round the busy town
(right arm circle above head)

The police chased the speeder
(run in place)

The siren sounded “woo, woo, woo”
(hands megaphone around mouth)

And IRK! (brake with sound)

Stopped the speeder
(hold hands in STOP position)
